

Diamanti Per Tutti

Diamond Fashion from Antwerp

Certificate of origin

Congratulations with your Diamanti Per Tutti. Before you start wearing it, we want to take this opportunity to tell you a little bit more about our products.

Firstly, we hereby certify that all stones are real diamonds and gem stones, handset by microscope. So may we remind you to treat your accessory with tender loving and care, as it is delicate and fragile. We are big supporters of healthy lifestyle, but we don't recommend wearing our accessories while practising sports or in the water.

We also certify that, to the best of our knowledge, the diamonds and gem stones used in our accessories have been purchased from legitimate sources not involved in funding conflict diamonds and in compliance with United Nations Resolutions. We believe in karma, you know.

We hope your Diamanti Per Tutti will sparkle up your life from here on!
